American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS of General Washington is the condensed result of long experienced, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union: the danger of indulging too much in party feelings:—the necessity of supporting public credit at home:—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations: of encouraging foreign intercourse free frm foreign attachments:—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.

The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

MR. GEORGE BRIDPORT will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and appropriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be compleated, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War, first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr. Amies. The INK shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.

The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN: and the Typographical part executed by John Binns. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splended edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splended Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A "Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscsiptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 31.

ROMULUS RIGGS,

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18

Applications to be made to Mr. Guy Atkinson, Mr. Wm. Dunlap, or at the academy, where the terms will be made known.

☞The Academy will open on the 17th inst. JAS. CADEN,
Prof. Math & Nat. Philosophy.

*Arithmetic in so compendious a manner, (by lecture) that one figure does the office of ten in the common way; and of course, in one tenth the time the student can acquire a regular knowledge of this excellent art.

†Book-keeping (by single and double entry) in all its varieties, with general lectures on Domestic, Factorage, and Company Accounts; Accounts of Exchange; Negociation of bills; covering of cargoes, &c. with calculations, shewing at one view the state of the trader, merchant, factor, and grocer's affairs. These being more closely connected with business than any of the above, occasioned the subscriber to point them out to the public. He also invites the learned to visit the academy at their convenience, and judge for themselves. On the first of October he will open an Evening School, for the accommodation of those whose employments prevent from attending during the day. J. C.

Baltimore Hospital,

24th August, 1818.

THE board of visitors have much pleasure in announcing to the public, that within the last eighteen months, a large and elegant addition has been made to this valuable institution, in the erection of the East wing of the building. This wing is 152 feet in length and 36 in width, with an extensive Southern projection at its extreme East end. It contains between 30 and 40 apartments, admirably calculated for the accommodation of every class of patients. Of this number are several large and airy wards, intended particularly for the reception of seamen, and well adapted to their various diseases. These different rooms and wards will be warmed by open fires, and by heated air thrown into them, from furnaces constructed on a safe and improved plan. Arrangements will also soon be made, for lighting the apartments in the entire building, with gas.

The unwearied exertions of Doctors Mackenzie and Smyth, the attending Physicians of the Hospital, in their attention to the construction of the building, and their care of the sick, have given a character to this Institution, which is now inferior to none in the United States. In the short space of six years, a most noble establishment has been erected—a thing without parallel in this country. It is well known, that above half a century has been consumed, in bringing the Hospitals of New-York and Philadelphia to their present size, and it is admitted by many gentlemen, who have visited these Institutions, that the Hospital here, is by far the most extensive, the whole building being now 360 feet in length.

The daily increase of the sick in the Hospital, renders it absolutely necessary that the new wing should be furnished; and every exertion is now making, to have it completed, before the cold weather shall set in.

The visitors at their late meeting, examined the Institution with much care—the apartments of the sick in the private infirmary—those in the lunatick asylum—and the wards of the sick and disabled seamen in the Marine Hospital—and they assert with confidence, that the sick and afflicted of every description are well accommodated and carefully attended. They have seen at their different meetings, the private patient comfortable: the wretched marine humanely taken care of; and the sailor, disabled by age, wounds and sickness, well provided with suitable medical assistance, and with every other comfort which his condition may require. Indeed the agreeable situation in which this very useful class of men are placed, does much credit, as well to the Director of the Marine Hospital, as to the attending Physicians, to whose immediate care they are entrusted. Every praise too, which the visitors can bestow, is due to Mr. & Mrs. Gatchel, the Stewart and Matron of the Hospital, for the neat and clean manner in which the House is uniformly kept, and for their care and attention to the administration of the internal economy of the establishment.

Before they conclude this account of the Hospital, the visitors would invite the attention of their fellow citizens throughout the United States, to the Anatomical Cabinet of Wax Preparations, by Chiappi, which certainly far surpasses any thing of the kind ever exhibited in this country; and will afford to those whose curiosity may lead them to see how "fearfully and wonderfully they are made," but more especially to the medical student, a fund of useful information.

The Hospital is under the care of the following medical gentlemen:

Doctors Colin Mackenzie } Attending
James Smyth } Physicians.
Dr. Horatio Gates Jameson, Attend'g Surg.
Doctors George Brown, John Coulter, John Campbell White, Solomon Birkhead, John Cromwell, Peter Chatard, Ashton Alexander, John Owen, William Donaldson } Consulting Physicians.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber's service, on Saturday night the 15th inst. Negro woman TREACE or TREACY—she is five feet two or three inches high, about 30 years of age, of a very dark complexion, and when particularly examined is very apt to confound herself.—It is deemed unnecessary to mention her clothing, as she has all of them with her, and being extremely artful, she no doubt will change them and endeavor to pass for a free woman. She is well acquainted in Charles county, Prince George's, Alexandria and the City, as about 5 years ago she made her escape, and was 6 or 7 months about the Lower Ferry, leading to Alexandria, and from thence to Washington City, where she acquired an extensive acquaintance among the Negroes belonging to John Brent, esq.; and the greater part of said Negroes belong now to William and Robert Brent, esqrs. and Mr. Dudley Diggs. Negro Treace has a scar on the back part of her neck, occasioned by a seaton put for the benefit of her eyes, which are very weak at this time. I will give 10 dollars if taken in the county and secured in jail, or if out of the county and secured as aforesaid, so that I get her again, 25 dollars, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home. All persons are forewarned harboring or employing said Negro at their peril, as the law will be rigorously put in force against any offender.

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS.—With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikeland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniencies for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

INSTRUCTIONS TO REPRESENTATIVES.

A writer Z. in the Gazette of Thursday, has made some very strange remarks relative to the right of constituents to instruct their representatives. He says, "they who assert the right to instruct, actually pervert the term representative from its original signification and import." What must we define the word representative to be? Is it not something bearing a strong similitude to the original? is it not intended directly to shew the character and appearance of that which it represents?—In what light then must we consider a representative of the people? The people of the United States are the acknowledged sovereigns of power; their united voice is considered as the basis of law, and any deviation from their will is usurpation. When a number of citizens elect a person to represent them, they expect that he will act agreeably to the wishes and reiterate the sentiments they express. otherwise he is certainly not a representative, but actuated alone by the effervescence of his own imagination. Do we not see, that representatives generally attend to every thing that, in their judgment, is conducive to the welfare of their constituents, even though it be not expressed by those whom they represent? How much more then ought their united voices to be heard on an important subject by those whom they have entrusted with the power of expressing those sentiments?

The government of the United States, in its present delegated form, is an abbreviated democracy;—and should those few who are nominated to express the real wishes of the people act directly contrary? Surely not: it would be perverting the soundest principle of republicanism—it would be aiming a death-blow at the vital interests of those who alone have the sole right to direct the government; and this mole-hill of usurpation, though small, and scarcely perceptible in the origin, in the lapse of time would grow to a mountain of insurmountable magnitude. I do not pretend to say that the people should be consulted on every occasion: this would be impossible. The representative should act agreeably to the dictates of his judgment, and then if his decision is disapproved by his constituents, let him change his conduct and act in unison with their wishes.

With regard to increasing the compensation of the members of Congress, though I believe it was no more than a sufficiency, I am proud to see that such a bold stride to self-aggrandizement met with the indignation and resentment of the people.—It at once shews that they are jealous of their liberty, and will guard it with an eagle eye—that they discountenance every measure that tends to subvert their authority—and that they will obliterate the footsteps of corruption before they have made an indelible impression. That the people have repented of their disapprobation of the compensation bill, I deny:—that they have elected some of the members who were advocates of this bill, is true: but not through a conviction that these members acted correctly, in this instance. The people believed them to be honest men, zealous for their country's welfare—they imputed this error in legislation, to be "an error of the head and not of the heart"—they scourged them, and were willing that they again should represent them.

It is the very soul and essence of republicanism, that every action of the government is investigated by the people—its deformity pointed out, or its virtue applauded—and the voice of the people heard with attention. But when this ceases to be the case, liberty will be known but by name; corruption, usurpation, and tyranny, with all their ghastly train, will stalk with gigantic strides o'er the desolate domains of the republic; and then the proud, self-important despisers of instruction, will shed the bitter tears of repentance, bereft of even a hope for the restoration of liberty.

AMERICANUS.

United States bank notes are quoted at Richmond, Va. at one per cent below New-York notes.

We understand, that Robert Gibson, arraigned twice before the circuit court of this county for the murder of John M. Petross—the first time, condemned, but a new trial granted him on the plea of indisposition and on inability to defend himself—the second time, no verdict from a division among the Jury—was a third time brought to the bar, on Tuesday last, of the circuit court—No counsel for him—no argument on either side.—The Jury brought in a verdict of guilty of Murder in the first Degree.—Sentence of death is not yet passed upon him. [Richmond Com. Sept. 17.

From the Rochester (N. Y.) Gazette.

MR. GOURLEY AGAIN.

In the Sacket's Harbor Gazette of the 25th August, we find a detailed account of the trial of Mr. Gourley, at the late assizes in Kingston, U. C. for a libel on the government of the Upper Province, and for attempting to sow sedition among the people, &c. Mr. Gourley addressed the jury in his own behalf. The judge (Campbell) leaned rather hard against the prisoner in his charge; but the jury soon returned with a verdict of acquittal, which was received by the audience with a thunder-peal of acclamation. The morning after the verdict was announced, "Gourley forever," was found inscribed on almost every fence and corner-post in Kingston. Next day Mr. Gourley partook of a dinner given by the citizens.

The principal grievances complained of by the "Gourleyites" are—the refusal of lands and compensation promised to the disbanded soldiery of the province, and to the emigrants who arrive there from the mother country.

Mr. Gourley came to Canada, as an emigrant, to make a selection from the public lands set apart by the government as inducements to settle in the province; but he was treated with neglect, and failed in his purpose, as had many before him. He remonstrated, but without effect; and the people who had been similarly imposed upon, and were silent, perhaps, for want of a person sufficiently bold and capable to take the lead, have arrayed themselves under his banners. The writer in the Sacket's Harbor paper thinks, notwithstanding his present popularity, that Mr. Gourley "does not possess those great and attractive qualities which insure to a man the admiration of the multitude unconnected with his situation." But adds—"he is doubtless, however, as popular now in the province of Upper Canada as ever man was in any country."

The writer above quoted, who speaks with candor, and seems to have a thorough knowledge of his subject, infers, that nothing like a revolution need be anticipated: the remedying the evils above cited is the only aim; and these the mother country will remedy, rather than have business carried to extremes.

From the Norfolk Herald, September 16.

WEST-INDIA INTELLIGENCE.

By the Alknomack, and the Trial, from Kingston, (Jam.) regular files of the papers of that place to the 18th ult. have been received at this office, and at the Reading Room. They afford but little news. Sales of Coffee had been effected at from 19 to 21 cents.

Commodore Aury is stated to have taken possession of the Island of Old Providence, which he has fortified and garrisoned with about 350 troops. He appeared off Old Providence on the 4th July, in the brigantine Mexican Congress, with four other armed vessels under Mexican Colours, and two prizes, and sent a boat on shore to notify his intention to occupy that Island and the neighboring one of Santa Catalina, in behalf of the Independent Government. The next day he landed his troops, and commenced throwing up works of defence. He also issued a Proclamation, promising protection to the inhabitants, and to all private property, in consequence of which no acts of plunder had taken place. Many of his officers are said to be British.—His object in holding these places is not stated, though it may be readily inferred that he designs them for depots for his prizes.

Kingston, August 15.

The Dolphin on her passage down, sprung her top-mast, and on the 8th inst. put into the Bay of San Fonde, for the purpose of refitting it; when about 11 A. M. she was attacked by a number of boats from the shore, which, after a short conflict, chiefly of musketry, were beaten off, without any loss on the part of the Dolphin's crew, but with considerable loss on that of the assailants, one of their boats having been sunk within a few yards of the vessel. They seem to have been led on by a white man, and in all probability either an Englishman or an American, from the exclamation "O God!" used by him when shot, which was distinctly heard by the crew of the Dolphin.

Bridge-Town, (Barbados,) August 8.

We have received the following communication from a quarter that authorizes the fullest authenticity:

"Admiral Brion has returned to Augustura, with a considerable supply of arms and ammunition, and all the British have gone out—report says, 800.

"It appears that the Independents have made a fine campaign, by taking San Fernando, and driving the Spaniards out of Llanos. The advantage of the former can only be appreciated by an acquaintance with the geography of the country. It secures the inland navigation from Augustura to a short distance of Santa Fee, as well as the security of the rich Province of Barinas, and consolidates the conquest of Guyana with the protection of Llanos.

General Bolivar has, besides, achieved a more difficult enterprize—he has restored perfect union among all the Independent leaders, and obedience to the Government; so that it has (at least) assumed the order and security of a government "de facto."

"An Envoy from the President of the U. States (a Mr. Irwin) went out in the American sloop of war Hornet, and has proceeded to Augustura, Brion's ship, who received him on board from the Hornet, at Margaritta.—The object of his mission remains unknown."

From the same.

LATE AND INTERESTING INTELLIGENCE FROM THE SPANISH MAINE.

Capt. Kerr, of the British schr. Sector, has politely favored us with a proof sheet slip from the office of the Trinidad Courant, dated the 29th August, which contains the following highly interesting extract. Capt. K. has also handed us a file of the Courant to the 26th of August.

Trinidad, August 19.

On Friday, the 21st inst. anchored in this port, about ten miles to the southward, Adm. Brion, from Guayana, with the following squadron under his command;—

Victoria, capt. Cowie, flag ship.
Columbia, capt. Hill.
Spartana, capt. Ravelo.
Favorite, capt. Bernard.

And having had a sort of neutral communication with Admiral Harvey, proceeded early next morning for his destination.

A squadrilla of what they term their subtle force, composed of gun boats and flecheras, with 700 men of debarkment on board, commanded by Com. Diaz, and Gen. Bermudez, which had descended the river with the Admiral, and debouched by the Cano de Macareo, and rendezvoused at Point Icacos, were ordered to join to the Westward.

The result of this expedition was received here yesterday by a canoe, and has been, that Guiria was attacked at 10 o'clock on Monday night, the 24th inst. and carried by assault, with very little loss to the assailants, but a very considerable one to the Spaniards, who fought with bravery, until the Favorite having got close in to the redoubt, and opened her fire from a 24 pounder on a pivot, loaded with grape; they immediately fled into the interior with the greatest precipitation, leaving behind their arms, ammunition, and every thing, even to their segars. The force afloat has also been taken: it consists of 9 gun-boats, and some vessels with private property, chiefly cocoa, of which, it seems, there is a large quantity in the town, and on the coast. The blockade being now raised, we hope to see very soon the happy effects of a free navigation, by the arrival of lots of cattle and mules from Guayana and Guarapiche.

Of the casualties in this affair, we have not seen any detail; but the report states generally, that they were very trifling on the part of the assailants, but on that of the assailed, enormous, which, however, we may be permitted to doubt.

P. S. Since the foregoing was prepared for the press, we have received a circumstancial account of the military and naval transactions which led to the surrender of Guiria, by his majesty's ship Scamander, capt. Elliott, who was sent there on professional duty by the Admiral, and had an opportunity of observing all that passed. We shall present our readers with the detail in our next: in the mean time, we embrace this to correct an error in our foregoing statement of the land forces under Gen. Bermudez, which amounted only to 70 boys, instead of 700 men; but these young republican heroes proved themselves fully competent to perform the work."

We learn verbally from Captain Kerr, that the intelligence received by the Schamander, relative to the above affair, was, in substance as follows:—That frigate had been dispatched by the British Admiral to demand from the Spanish Commandant at Guiria, the release of two English vessels improperly detained by him. On her arriving in the bay, Admiral Brion was making his dispositions for attacking the place. The Spanish Commandant refused to give up the two English vessels, and the Scamander stood out and lay off the harbor to reconnoitre the engagement, which soon commenced. Previously, however, Admiral Brion sent word to the Capt. of the Scamander to give himself no concern about the vessels, as he would engage to deliver them to him in the course of the day, which he did. During the action, the Favorite (mentioned in the preceding account) got becalmed in a situation which left her at the complete disposal of the enemy, who boarded her and massacred every one of the crew. Soon after this horrid act of barbarity, a breeze sprung up, and the Admiral, in the Victoria, (not the Favorite as stated above) was enabled to take a favorable position, when he opened a tremendous fire on the Spanish flotilla and batteries. In a little time the fire of the Spaniards was completely silenced. Those at the batteries fled in all directions, while those in the gun-boats were indiscriminately put to death by the avenging sword of the Patriots.

Capt. K. states that, the universal impression at Trinidad was, that the Patriots would very soon be in undisturbed possession of every inch of territory in Venezuela. He also mentions a fact, by no means unimportant, that in an exchange of communications between the British Admiral and Admiral Brion, the former addressed the latter with his official title of "Admiral and Commander in Chief of the naval forces of the Independent government of Venezuela;" thus recognizing the independence of the power under which he acted.

From New Grenada the accounts are not less favorable to the cause of the Patriots. The "Correo del Orinoco," after noticing the contents of numerous letters from that province detailing the success of the Patriots, says,—

"Although these letters may state exaggerations, we have thought it best to omit nothing of their contents, leaving our readers to judge of what is really passing in New Grenada. It appears, upon the whole, that the Royalists are very hard pressed in the South, and that they are directing thither the movements of their force, abandoning the most important points, and that they themselves consider the evacuation of the country inevitable. These are things of which there is no doubt, especially when we consider that there does not remain 200 Spanish European soldiers, and that the plan of combined attack by Guayaquil and Casanare has been long talked of.

Official letters have been received from Generals Paez and Naraza, stating that, in the middle of July last, the enemy retreated towards Valencia, abandoning all his posts both on the Varinas and Sombrero districts. It is not known what is the cause of this sudden movement."

Extract of a letter from on board the ship Palladium of Boston, dated

"Sailed from Beverly, January 1, 1818. On the 9th at 10 A. M. a sail was discovered on our beam, to windward, and in a few minutes found her to be a brig under a great press of canvass standing ENE. We steered E. At 2 P M having got into our wake, he halted his course, and gave chase for us—from 3 to 5 P M he fired 4 guns to bring to, but we finding our ship held pretty good way with him, kept on. At dark he was 3 miles astern, gaining on us apparently about half a mile per hour. At 8, evening, being very dark, capt. L. thought it best to alter our course to NNW for a short time. We had been on this course near an hour, when the brig was discovered close on board of us. She immediately gave us a gun, and we hove to; he then in insolent language ordered the capt. on board of him, and fired two small arms. While capt. L. was on board, a boat's crew of 14 rascals, armed with cutlasses and pistols, boarded us, and immediately drove every soul except the steward into the forecastle, set 2 sentries over it, and then commenced robbing the cabin, breaking locks of chests, trunks, desks, &c. They robbed us of 760 Spanish dollars, all the trunks and chests were emptied of every article of wearing apparel, besides 2 new beaver hats, 3 or 4 pair boots or shoes, 3 quadrants, 2 silver watches, 1 chart and scale, 1 new pair pistols, 1 case mathematical instruments, 40 or 50 wt. sugar, 1 excellent spy glass, and a number of small articles. When they left us and got to the brig, capt. L. was permitted to return, and brought back some shirts and a few small articles of clothing, but nothing else.

The captain of the brig said he was about two months from New-Orleans on a cruise and captured and sent in a number of Spanish vessels. The brig reported herself to be called the Chino, and mounted 14 guns, and an 18 pounder amidships, and had about 60 or 70 men. The captain's name was Michæl Sauxmadoe Robes. He gave captain L. an order on somebody to pay for some duck & rigging which he took from us. At midnight he left us steering westerly, and glad were we to get off so well.

The men were mostly Spaniards, but there was a mixture of different nations.

The above is a true account of the brig's transactions with us.

HENRY LARCOM.
EDW. W. PARKER.

Of the money taken, 500 dollars belonged to the captain, 200 an adventure from Salem, 40 1st officer, &c.

FROM LATE LONDON PAPERS.

London, August 12.

The French papers say, that a convoy of 14 Spanish ships, which sailed from Cadiz the 24th of June, were nearly all captured on the evening of the 25th, by the Insurgent privateers which cruize off Cape St. Vincent. It is added, that the crews were put on board a chasse maree which formed part of the convoy, and were all disembarked near Vigo.

SECRET EXPEDITION.

The expedition about to sail on board the Royal Yachts, in a profound peace, is, of course, become a matter of great public curiosity. We have been favored by a correspondent with a statement of some parts of the equipment.

The whole of the forces embarked are foreign, and most of them furnished by our good ally, the king of France, in return, it is supposed, for the services he has derived from our troops. Detachments of the following corps are on board the Royal Sovereign, or shortly will be so:

Royal Regiment of Burgundy.
Royal Regiment of Campaigne.
Regiment of Bourdeax (large detachm't.)
Light Infantry of the Moselle.
Corps of Veterans raised on the Rhine.
A small corps from the Cape.
Body Guard, raised in Curacoa.

A small battering train is on board, supposed sufficient to take possession (according to report) of Chateau Margot and Chateau Latour.

The provisions on board are of the best quality, under the direction of commissaries Watier and Benois.

The greatest attention has been paid to the health of those on board, and a detachment of the corps of Royal Cuppers and some disbanded Lancers form part of the expedition. The French troops and those from the Rhine, are furnished with ice by a new arrangement, to preserve their coolness and freshness in the passage down the channel. Our ancient ally, the king of Portugal, volunteered any number of his troops; but it is said the offer was received at head quarters with disdain. With a due and proper respect to the constitution, the foregoing troops are placed under the command, for the present, of an English officer, (the Earl of Cork) under sealed order, to be opened at sea; when, it is conjectured, the noble lord's services will be withdrawn.

The Rev. Mr. Bl—b—g is appointed Chaplain to the forces, and a birth has been provided for him under the table.

The object of the expedition remains a profound secret. [Statesman.

A letter from Constantinople, dated the 4th of June, published at Genoa, states that a Turkish lady, a young widow, named Zelidia Almedia, daughter of the late Ibrahim Assid, being overcome with ennui, at Trescisonde, to which she had retired, was desirous of joining an Italian colonel at Constantinople, under whose protection she intended to make a tour in Europe, taking with her all her wealth. Her confidants in this project were the Cadi Sherif Hassan, the Bostagis Achmet and Elinovan, and her three favorite slaves—all of whom, on its being discovered, unfortunately lost their heads. The lady herself was condemned to imprisonment for life.—The Italian colonel, at the date of the letter, had not arrived at Constantinople, but orders had been issued for his arrest, in case of his making his appearance there.

So intense was the heat at Southampton on Wednesday last, that a carpet, lying under a skylight, in a store-room of a cabinet maker of that town, was nearly burnt before it was discovered.

We lately noticed the circumstance of the Leicester packet, having on her passage from Waterford to Milford, between the Saltees and the Smalls, struck upon something supposed to be a whale—and we have since learnt that she was at the time sailing at the rate of eight knots an hour.—Upon coming in contact with this huge inhabitant of the deep, the vessel was greatly impeded in her course—a tremulous motion ensued, and on the man at the helm looking astern, he perceived the tail of what he considered to be a whale, one moment about twenty feet above water, and the next furiously lashing the waves—apparently from the agony occasioned by the before mentioned concussion.

It will be perceived by such of our readers as have read the decree of the Judge of the Admiralty in the case of the Nabby, American fishing vessel, that it does not affect the pretensions advanced by the citizens of the United States, claiming the right to take fish on the Grand Bank of Newfoundland, the Gulf of St. Lawrence, and all other places in the sea; as she was condemned for a violation of the laws made for the regulation of trade and navigation. He observed, however, that the intention of the British government at the time (1783) was to acknowledge an absolute right to take fish in those places; 'but' he stated that 'the Court was not called upon in this case to determine that point.' As far as relates to that part of the original treaty which gave the Americans liberty to fish on the coasts, bays and creeks of his Majesty's dominions, and to cure fish on their shores, most undoubtedly, that privilege ceased when the American government violated the treaty by its subsequent declaration of war; and the Judge said he felt himself bound to declare that "the treaty of 1783 and all the privileges depending thereon had ceased." FROM HAVANA.

By the Eliza Ann, the editors of the Gazette have received Havana papers to the 29th of August, but, a competent translator says "they contain nothing."

We learn that Mr. Robinson, an American, who was taken with Gen. Mina, had been transferred from the gaol at Havana to the Moro, with several other Americans, and were shortly to be sent from thence to Madrid to be tried for being taken in arms against the Spanish government.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

I WILL give the above reward for apprehending and lodging in any jail in the District of Columbia, a person by the name of JOHN POST, a Bricklayer and Stonemason, who has been at work for about two months past at Fort Washington, and was discharged on the 7th of September inst.—He says he was born in the state of New-York; is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, and has sandy hair: he had with him an apprentice boy, nearly grown. A few days previous to his leaving Fort Washington he took the liberty of borrowing, in the name of Mr John Cohagen, from a lady at that place 15 dollars, which was not known till after he left it; and immediately after he was discharged and paid off, he forged two checks in the name of the Subscriber, on the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, one of which he procured the money for at the Bank, and the other he passed to a person in Alexandria, which was detected and refused.—Previous to his coming to Fort Washington, he worked in the City of Washington, where he said he intended to work again; but it is probable he has not stopped so near the theatre of his villany.

Stop the Swindler.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

I WILL give the above reward for apprehending and lodging in any jail in the District of Columbia, a person by the name of JOHN POST, a Bricklayer and Stonemason, who has been at work for about two months past at Fort Washington, and was discharged on the 7th of September inst.—He says he was born in the state of New-York; is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, and has sandy hair: he had with him an apprentice boy, nearly grown. A few days previous to his leaving Fort Washington he took the liberty of borrowing, in the name of Mr John Cohagen, from a lady at that place 15 dollars, which was not known till after he left it; and immediately after he was discharged and paid off, he forged two checks in the name of the Subscriber, on the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, one of which he procured the money for at the Bank, and the other he passed to a person in Alexandria, which was detected and refused.—Previous to his coming to Fort Washington, he worked in the City of Washington, where he said he intended to work again; but it is probable he has not stopped so near the theatre of his villany.

Persons are cautioned against being imposed on by him. BOLITHA LAWS.

Boot and Shoe Making.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public in general that he continues to carry on the above business at his old stand in Fairfax-street, next to the Fish Market, where he solicits a share of custom, as nothing on his part shall be wanting to give perfect satisfaction. He flatters himself that his materials are of the very best quality, and his workmen are excelled by none in the district. He has selected from New-York and Baltimore the following articles for the use of the journeymen, viz: shoulder-sticks, shoulder-irons, rankees, threads, stamps, ranbreaks, jiggers with and without handles, awls of every description, heel-balls of fine quality, colt handles, pincers, hammers, sand paper, rubbers, ran files, rasps, tacks, shoe horns, patent pincers, shoe knives, wax, awl halves, Russia bristles, bones—with a variety of other articles in his line. He has also procured a Notice.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Honorable Court of Charles County as a Court of Equity, I shall expose to public sale at Port-Tobacco, Charles county, Maryland, on Wednesday the 7th day of October next, all the real estate of which General John Mitchell died seized, lying in Durham parish in said county, consisting of two tracts of land adjoining each other, called Hollyspring Resurveyed and Meek's Park, containing about 730 acres. This estate is situated contignous to that of Colonel John Tayloe's, near Maryland Point, and within two miles of the river Potomac, is considered one of the most healthy in that neighborhood, lies level, and the soil (a part of which is already strong), is thought to be susceptible of speedy improvement by the use of clover and plaister of paris. On this estate is a very considerable body of wood and timber, which if converted into money would probably pay the purchase money.

The improvements are a two story dwelling with two rooms and a passage on each floor, and a cellar under the whole, kitchen, Negro quarters, barn, and corn house, and an orchard of some of the choicest fruits.—A more particular description of it is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumable that those inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the day of sale. It will be sold either entire or in parcels for the accommodation of purchasers.—The purchaser or purchasers will be required to enter into bond, with approved security for the payment of the purchase money in one, two and three years, with interest, payable annually from the day of sale; and on the ratification of the sale by the Court, and the payment of the purchase money, and not before, a deed or deeds in due form will be made, conveying all the estate, right, title, interest and claim, to the premises that the said John Mitchell, deceased, held in the same, which title is indisputable.

Public Sale.

UNDER the authority of a deed of trust from James D. Patterson to me, I shall at 11 o'clock, on Saturday, the 5th day of September next, upon the premises, proceed to sell at public auction for cash, or upon such credit as may then be agreed on, a lot of ground, with the buildings thereon erected, situate on the west side of West-street, and north side of King-st. in the town of Alexandria, and described in the said deed as follows: beginning at a point where the north line of King-street intersects the west line of West-street, and extending westwardly with the line of King-street 19 feet; thence north and parallel with King-street 100 feet to a 10 feet alley; thence east and parallel to King-street 19 feet to West-street; thence south with West-street 100 feet to the beginning—subject to a ground rent of 57 dollars, payable on the 15th day of October; in each and every year forever.

Land for Sale.

I WILL sell from 150 to 300 acres of land, part of the farm on which I live.—On said land there is a log house with two rooms on a floor, a meat house, with several other small buildings, an excellent apple orchard, peaches, pears, quinces, damsons, &c. DANIEL DULANY.

August 24

Lexington for Sale.

THIS estate, containing two thousand three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, being one half of the well known tract of land commonly called "Mason's Neck," situated on the Potomac, in the county of Fairfax, Virginia, is now offered for sale. About two-thirds of it is covered with an uncommon heavy growth of white and bl'k oak, hickory, pine, poplar, &c. near the water's edge, whence it may be transported to the markets of the district of Columbia, (a distance of 20 miles only) where timber and fuel are always in demand, and without the expense and risk encountered in conveying those articles from situations further down the river: the remainder is in cultivation, and furnished with every necessary building for that purpose; together with orchards and a blacksmith's shop. The other improvements are a spacious and elegant dwelling-house, kitchen, dairy, smoke-house, office, ice-house, a well of excellent water, and a falling garden, of the most tasteful and costly design, filled with the rarest and most beautiful shrubberies and flowers, exotic and indigenous, all situated on an eminence, commanding a view of the rest of the tract, which extends in an unintercepted plain from the foot of the eminence to the Potomac and Occoquan, by which it is so far bounded as to render the expense of enclosing it comparatively nothing. The prospect, moreover, of the surrounding country, diversified in every direction by sheets of water, is really beautiful beyond description. There are likewise attached to this estate four valuable however, the subscriber intends to reserve one of them and a few acres of land. The woods abound with deer in such numbers, that with a little care a gentleman might command a constant supply of venison for his table; and besides the large streams abovementioned, the various creeks and inlets that every where intersect the land are covered in the proper season with wild fowl of every description known in our waters. When to all these advantages is added the great natural fertility of the land, which is not exceeded perhaps in the western country, its adaption to improvement by the use of plaster, which has been proved by experiment, its vicinity to society, to market, to two manufacturing grist-mills, to which the distance of conveyance by land and water is not more than 5 or 6 miles, it may with truth be pronounced the most valuable estate, of the same extent, in the whole range of country watered by the Potomac. It will be sold entire or divided to suit purchasers.

The terms of sale will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, the remaining 2-3ds in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, secured by a deed of trust on the land—which will be shewn, in my absence to any person disposed to purchase, by Mr. William Allison of Mr. Weston, residing on the premises.

Clermont for Sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale this well known and valuable estate, in the vicinity of Alexandria, being distant not more than three miles, commanding a view of the town and of the valley through which the Cameron creek meanders. The domain consists of 360 acres, a large portion of which is bottom land, highly susceptible of improvement; its buildings consist of a large dwelling house containing 12 comfortable apartments and 8 fire places, and of such other buildings as are necessary for the accommodation of a farmer. This estate will be sold altogether or divided to suit purchasers.

One third of the purchase money will be required in hand, and the remainder in equal payments of 9 and 18 months.

CHARLES I. LOVE.

Clermont, near Alex'a, sep. 17 thmtf

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Estate for Sale.

UNDER the authority of a decree from the Equity Court of Prince George's county, the subscriber will on Wednesday the 23d day of September next, offer at public sale, at the house of Isidore Hardy, in Piscataway, a most valuable property, the Estate of George R. Leiper,

Esq. deceased, so well known by the name of MONTPELIER—about 2 miles from Piscataway, 9 miles from Alexandria, and 16 from Washington city.

This farm, which contains rather more than 600 acres, is truly valuable. The soil is fertile and highly susceptible of improvement by the use of clover and plaster. The buildings are good and commodious, and the scite of the Mansion, in beauty of perspective and salubrity of air, is excelled by few on Potomac river. To be enabled to appreciate fully the elegance of the situation and all the advantages which result to the possessor of this valuable estate, it is only necessary that it should be viewed, which may be done, and every necessary information obtained, by application to the subscriber, or Mr. Aquilla Baden, the present manager of the farm.

The terms of sale are that the purchaser shall pay one-third in ready money, and the residue in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by bond with approved security, and on the ratification of the sale by the court, and the payment of the whole purchase money with the interest thereon due, and not before, the trustee will execute to the purchaser a deed in the terms of the decree. The purchaser on complying with the terms of sale, will have the liberty of seeding a crop of winter grain.

THOMAS MUNDELL, Trustee.

Oakland, near Piscataway, August 11 cpt23S

The subscriber will offer at public sale, on the same day and place above mentioned, 125 acres of land (lying nearly square) adjoining the above farm. It has been enclosed five years, without being cultivated; has 8 or 10 acres well set in timothy, and upwards of 30 in good timber and wood of different kinds. The improvements are a logged quarter and good barn. A part of the land has been well cowpenned for the five years. Terms will be made known on the day of sale

BILL IN CHANCERY.

Robert Perry

James B. Dunnington, Robert Dunnington, Francis Taylor and Elizabeth B. his wife, James Bloxham and Catharine his wife, William Simmons and Esther his wife, heirs of William Dunnington.

THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father Wm. Dunnington, whose personal estate was not sufficient for the payment of his debts. Wm. Dunnington's estate is indebted to the complainant in a large sum of money. The object of the bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the land, for the payment of the debts remaining unpaid by the personal estate. Some of the heirs of Wm. Dunnington are non-residents.—It is thereupon, at motion of the Complainant, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that the absent defendants may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a solicitor, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed. Charles County Court,

March Term, 1818.

ON application to Charles county court by petition in writing of John Smith, of Charles county, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Jno. Smith has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said John Smith is in actual confinement for debt, and the said John Smith having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles county court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him—It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said John Smith be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively before the third Monday of August next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Court, at Charlestown, in said county, on the said third Monday of August next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause why the said John Smith should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws as prayed. Given under my hand this 20th day of June 1818.

PROPOSALS,

By Gideon Fairman, John Binns and Charles S. Parker,

TO PUBLISH

A Splendid Edition of

Washington's Farewell Address,

To the People of the United States.

THE world has seen enough of warriors and of Heroes—enough of Statesmen—of men who have guided Armies in the field, or dictated as Sages in the Cabinet, for the exclusive purpose of Ambition. History from its earliest page to the present day, has offered to our contemplation, only ONE WASHINGTON, but ONE MAN, whose dangers in war, and labors in in peace, were undertaken and supported with a single eye, to the benefit of his country; whose wonderful and honorable success, was the plain result of wisdom in design, and valour in execution; whom danger never appalled, nor defeat depressed; who, persevering in the justice of his cause, wooed Victory till he won her: who covetted no reward but the well earned approbation of those whose interest he lived to promote: who renounced all public honors, when they ceased to be the necessary instruments of good to the people, whose gratitude conferred them: who superior to all Monarchs, was content to be called the American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS of General Washington is the condensed result of long experienced, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union: the danger of indulging too much in party feelings:—the necessity of supporting public credit at home:—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations: of encouraging foreign intercourse free frm foreign attachments:—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.

The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

MR. GEORGE BRIDPORT will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and a propriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be compleated, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr. Amies. The INK shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.

The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN: and the Typographical part executed by John Binns. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splended edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splended Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A "Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscsiptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 31.
